

CNIC PhDay 2025: Concursos

Poster contest

Let's make the most out of our CNIC PhDay 2025 Poster Session. All posters in the biomedical science field will be considered for our contest and the best ones will receive an exciting recognition!

In order to participate in the poster contest, participants need to send a poster abstract included in the registration form for the event. The abstract should not be longer than 2000 characters without spaces. The deadline for abstract submission is October 15th of 2025 or until registration is full. The abstracts will be reviewed by CNIC PhDay 2025 Organizing Committee, and selected posters will be notified by email before 10th November of 2025.

Selected posters must be printed in A0 size (841 x 1189 mm) in portrait orientation and brought to CNIC the day of the event. There will not be an onsite print service. To prevent empty poster boards, please inform us by email before 20th November of 2025 if you are unable to present your poster at the meeting. Posters should be mounted before the start of the event, please consider coming 30 minutes ahead.

Regarding the authors and affiliations, these guidelines must be followed:

- Author names should include last name and first name initial.
- Author names should be separated by commas.
- Author names should be followed by the affiliation in brackets.
- The affiliations should be expressed as a numbered list of institutions.

Example:

Authors:

Pérez P (1), Martínez J (1), Smith J (2), González M (1, 3)

Affiliations:

1. Fundación Centro Nacional de Investigaciones Cardiovasculares (CNIC)

Carlos III

2. Centro Nacional de Investigaciones Oncológicas

3. Instituto de Investigaciones Biomédicas "Alberto Sols"

Posters will be on display at the CNIC entrance. Authors are requested to be present at their poster during the entire Poster Session indicated in the schedule (check the website for future updates). Material should be removed at the end of the event.

Fundación pröcnic

There will be 5 recognitions, one for each of the 5 best posters: 600€ (minus IVA) for courses, conferences, etc., generously sponsored by Talento Ephos (500€) and Bionova (100€), 500€ (minus IVA) for courses, conferences, etc., generously sponsored by Promega, 500€ for purchases in VectorBuilder generously sponsored by the company, 300€ for courses, conferences, etc., generously sponsored by Miltenyi and an ebook generously sponsored by ThermoFisher.

The voting will take place at the day of the event according to the votes of the public (each assistant to the event will vote only once). In case of a tie, the jury from the Organizing Committee will decide the winner.

Please contact us at phday@cnic.es for any questions. We are looking forward to seeing your posters!

Scientific image contest

In this CNIC PhDay edition, we have been fortunate to bring you the scientific image contest, thanks to the generosity of INYCOM, who sponsors this competition by providing 300€ for the best scientific image! Originality is valued!

Image can be up to 5MB, with a size of 1200px wide and 675px tall. Image captions must be included in the image itself. Participants must send the image together with their full name to our email: phday@cnic.es. Deadline is November 15th!

All images will be shown on November 28th. The final vote will happen in person during the CNIC PhDay on November 28th 2025 and only registered attendees will be able to vote. In case of a tie, the jury from the Organization Committee will decide the winner. The most voted image will get 300€, generously sponsored by INYCOM.

Only scientific images will be accepted, such as microscopy images, histology, PET scans, etc. Drawings or images unrelated to the scientific field will not be accepted. All pictures should be original and participants should have full rights of the photo sent. This means that pictures that have already been presented in contests or exhibitions or taken from (including but not only) X (former Twitter) and other sources won't be allowed. Also, any creation whose content includes violent, sexist, or racist scenes, or that violates the fundamental human rights will be rejected. Participation in the INYCOM: Image Contest 2025 implies authorization to publish the photos in CNIC PhDay communication media (Instagram, Facebook, X) crediting the copyright owners. Consequently, CNIC does not assume any liability for the breach of any legal requirements that are collected in this legal disclaimer.

Scientific Meme Contest

In this CNIC PhDay edition, we would like to see your best scientific memes! The specific topic of the meme is up to you, but it has to be somehow related to science. Originality is valued!

Photos can be up to 5MB, with a size of 1200px wide and 675px tall. Image captions must be included in the image itself. Participants must send the image together with their full name to our email: phday@cnic.es. Deadline is November 15th!

All memes will be shown on November 28th. The final vote will happen in person during the CNIC PhDay on November 28th 2025 and only registered attendees will be able to vote. In case of a tie, the jury from the Organizing Committee will decide the winner. The most voted meme will get 300€ (minus IVA) for courses, conferences, etc., generously sponsored by Jove, which will be handled through CNIC personnel. The second most voted meme will get 200€ (minus IVA) for courses, conferences, etc., generously sponsored by Palex.

All pictures should be original and participants should have full rights of the photo sent. This means that pictures that have already been presented in contests or exhibitions won't be allowed.
